Wagon Wheel Farm Stand and Nursery, <http://www.wagonwheelfarmstand.com/>

Catch a Falling Star Toystore – (they wrap presents for free!), 7 Depot Square – in the Center

“The Center” (downtown Lexington) has everything from banks, to restaurants, to coffee shops, to wonderful independent shops.

East Lexington (down on Mass. Ave. right before Arlington) is also a place for restaurants and shops, and the car wash.

Winchester –

Over in Winchester, 10 min. away, is a Whole Foods and Toys r Us. Mahoney's Garden Center.

Arlington -

Trader Joe's <http://www.traderjoes.com/stores/index.asp>

Down in Arlington Heights, there are all kinds of small shops and restaurants, don't miss Lakota Bakery for the best cookies!

Bedford -

Up in Bedford, 15 min. away, there is a Staples, Home Goods, and TJ Maxx. Past these is another Whole Foods (another 5-10 min depending on traffic).

Waltham -

Down in Waltham, 10 min. away, there is a Costco and Home Depot.

Burlington -

Up in Burlington, 10 min. away, there is a big mall, Nordstrom, Lord & Taylor, Macy's, and Sears are the anchors. There is also a Barnes & Noble and an AMC movie theater.

HARDWARE/PAINT

There is a local Ace Hardware on Woburn St. and they are a great, small, family-owned business, <http://www.lexingtonace.com/>

There are two Benjamin Moore stores – ColorWorks at 424 Marrett Road in Lexington, and City Paint at 1472 Mass Avenue in Arlington.

There is a Sherwin-Williams near the Stop n Shop. 10 Camellia Place, Lexington.
